A Star Studded Bengali Night to Benefit United Way

TORONTO – Get ready for a night of show-stopping music and fine dining Bollywood style at the Royal Bengal Night Charity Gala. Proceeds will benefit United Way of Greater Toronto and Bangladeshi-Canadian Community Services.

The gala will feature well known South Asian artists such as Bengali dancer Dipika Narwani. Dipika, born in Kolkatta and raised in Toronto, brings pride to South Asians and grace to the stage. She is known for her Kathak and Mujra performances and has appeared in celebrity events including Shah Rukh Khan and Steven Seagal show. The sweet velvety voice of Rosina Kazi will also be featured along with the carefully crafted beats of Nick Murray (a.k.a. “Murr”). DJ Special K will spin the hottest Bengali and Bhangra dance remixes, hip-hop and R & B music.

Doors open at 6:00 p.m. at the Taj Banquet Hall located at 4611 Steeles Avenue West in Toronto on Saturday March 27. Tickets are $35 in advance or $40 at the door, and include the dinner and dance. There will be door prizes and an auction of gift baskets featuring great items.

United Way of Greater Toronto strengthens neighbourhoods through its network of 200 social and health service agencies supporting young adults, youth, seniors, abused women and newcomers to Canada and more, including 71 serving the South Asian community.

“It promises to be a night everyone will remember,” says event organizer Ambreen Farook. “Featuring the hottest Bengali and Bhangra music, top-notch dance performances, fantastic prizes and the finest in Indian cuisine, you simply won’t want to miss it.”
